
Extra cost is controller minus reference. Negative values mean less computation; absolute differences avoid tiny-denominator ratios.